National Pancake Day:
SEPT 26th

BATTER UP for National Pancake Day MONTH

In anticipation of National Pancake Day, Saturday, September 26th, we're flipping for pancakes all month long!

Keep an eye out for weekly FlipNotes this entire month.

Pancakes AROUND THE WORLD

Let's explore some of the amazing pancakes found around the globe...

Japanese Fluffy Pancakes

Origin: Japan

Golden and crispy on the outside with a very soufflé-like custard interior. It's all about the jiggle!

Dutch baby / German Pancake

Origin: Germany

Baked in a cast iron skillet. Fresh from the oven it gets a squeeze of lemon, butter and powdered sugar; top with fruit.

Pannenkoeken Pancake

Origin: the Netherlands

Can be sweet, but often served savory with bacon, mushrooms & gouda. Unlike the "Dutch baby" this is the actual Dutch pancake.

Seasonal inspiration: Pumpkin Pancake Poppers!

Unusual Inclusions

You've heard of zucchini bread, so how about some zucchini pancakes? Serve them stacked high and topped with sour cream and cilantro.

A New Take on Pancakes Pancake & Fruit Kabobs

Skewer mini pancakes with strawberries and banana slices to create a fun brunch item that will please both adults and kids. Also makes a great grab 'n go item!
